CARTHAGE intends to become as famous for her annual Chrysanthemum Show as has Beyruth for the Wagnerian Operas performed there, or Oberammergau for the Passion Play, depicting the life of Christ, given there every tenth year by its peasants.

Our success before has much emboldened us, and the exhibition this year has been prepared on a scale of beauty and magnificence never before attempted in the South. Three thousand seven hundred plants are entered for exhibition; the very best musical and vocal talent of the State is engaged; B. R. Currey, of Currey & Co., florists, Nashville, will judge; the costumes are rich and beautiful; the decorations are superb.

The parade is added as a grand new feature.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE IMPROVED NEW ENTERPRISE STOVE

It is the most perfect Stove I ever saw. I want one for my own use.

I have cooked on the old-fashioned step stove and other old-fashioned stoves all I'm going to.

JOHN, buy me one of the Improved New Enterprise, or what you call 'em, when you go to town.

MARY, I don't think I can get one unless I go to the factory; the merchants say they sell them faster than they can get them.

JOHN, you can always get them at
